The Miami Heat is a professional basketball team based in Miami, Florida. Founded in nineteen eighty-eight, the team competes in the NBA as a member of the league's Eastern Conference Southeast Division. The Heat has established itself as one of the most successful franchises in modern NBA history, winning three NBA championships in two thousand and six, two thousand and twelve, and two thousand and thirteen.

The team's golden era came during the "Big Three" era, featuring LeBron James, Dwyane Wade, and Chris Bosh, under coach Erik Spoelstra and president Pat Riley. Their dynamic play and teamwork led the Heat to four consecutive NBA Finals appearances from two thousand and eleven to two thousand and fourteen.

Known for their strong defense, resilient spirit, and loyal fanbase, the Heat plays home games at the Kaseya Center in downtown Miami. With stars past and present, including Alonzo Mourning, Shaquille O'Neal, Jimmy Butler, and Bam Adebayo, the Miami Heat continues to be a symbol of passion, competitiveness, and excellence in basketball.
